初めての方でも安心してご参加ください。

A group of people are gathered around a wooden table, displaying several small, hand-woven baskets and bags. The items are made from colorful threads in shades of blue, yellow, red, orange, and purple. Some are round and bowl-shaped, while others are more elongated or have handles. The people's hands are visible, holding the woven items up for display. The background is slightly blurred, focusing attention on the woven objects.
